13 & 16 March 2009

Special timetable for London Midland services on Friday, 13 March and Monday, 16 March, 2009

Because of industrial action by some conductor members of the RMT union, your London Midland train services will be affected this Friday 13 March and Monday 16 March.

We apologise for the alterations to your service and the inconvenience this will cause, although we will be running as many services as possible during this period and prioritising services during the morning and evening peak on both days.

As a result of the industrial action we will operate:

- A full timetabled service to destinations north of Northampton
- A half hourly service between Northampton and London Euston (all with 12 carriage trains)
- A hourly service between Tring and London Euston (12 carriage trains)
- Additional special peak hours services between Northampton and London Euston (with 12 carriage trains)

The special timetable is printed in full overleaf and we will keep passengers updated on the latest situation via our website www.londonmidland.com
